Augsburg Airport is a German airfield with significance for the area Augsburg and good transport links to Stuttgart and Munich. The airfield is not a commercial airport despite the otherwise name. It is located about 7 km north-east from the center of Augsburg, near the Federal Highway 8 exit 73 Augsburg-Ost in the small town of Mulhouse (municipality Affing) in county Aichach-Friedberg. The airfield is therefore, and because it largely is on Mühlhauser ground, also called Airport Augsburg Mulhouse. Enjoy a special helicopter flight over the region of Augsburg.
